Sealing the deal

“MILLION Dollar Listing New York” star and Douglas Elliman scion Michael Lorber recently got engaged to Jeffrey Goldmuntz — a fashion executive at Dior — by popping the question and then pulling off an East End surprise engagement party, we hear. Said a source, “What Jeffrey thought was a casual spin on Michael’s boat, Knot for Sale, turned into the proposal when he popped the question” by docking at Duryea’s in Orient Point, LI. After Goldmuntz said yes, the couple headed inside the eatery to find 50 of their closest friends and family — including Michael’s dad, Elliman chairman Howard Lorber — toasting the happy couple.
